Africa changes you forever, like nowhere on earth. Once you have been there, you will never be the same. But how do you begin to describe its magic to someone who has never felt it? How can you explain the fascination of this vast, dusty continent, whose oldest roads are elephant paths? Could it be because Africa is the place of all our beginnings, the cradle of mankind, where our species first stood upright on the savannahs of long ago?

Brian Jackman

Mozambique's primary destinations are its coastal attractions, including main coast's Ilha de Mozambique, Maputo and the two archipelagos, Quirimbas and Bazaruto.

For those who are looking for the ultimate luxury holiday in Mozambique, Bazaruto Archipelago is an excellent solution.

Declared a national park in 1971, Bazaruto Archipelago protects and sustains a particularly rich and diverse range of plant life, and its unspoiled coral pink reefs are home to over 2,000 fish types plus loggerhead, leatherback and green turtles.

This large marine reserve is also home to true treasures like the rare dugong, giant lobster, dolphin, turtle and humpback whale.

Amongst the idyllic islands of the Bazaruto Archipelago, Benguerra Island, the second largest island of the archipelago, is the quintessential beach destination.

The sun-soaked island of Benguerra boasts warm, blue waters, sandy beaches, swaying palms and an abundance of marine life; it's a little slice of paradise.

Africa's most beautiful and pristine beaches are also a secluded, comfortable and luxurious location for an unforgettable experience in the Indian Ocean.

Just one hour by air from the Kruger National Park in South Africa, Benguerra Island is an ideal destination to unwind after a superb safari, or to simply enjoy a flute of champagne in front of sunset.

Benguerra Island offers barefoot luxury with its secluded beachside villas and year-round warm climate, a wonderful way to experience a digital detox; it's possible to practice exciting catch-and-release deep sea fishing, indulge in dhow safaris and enjoy scuba diving and yachting.

